COLLECT

Lord God, defend your Church from all false teaching and give to your people knowledge of your truth, that we may enjoy eternal life in Jesus Christ our Lord.

POST-COMMUNION PRAYER

Keep, O Lord, your Church, with your perpetual mercy; and, because without you our human frailty cannot but fall, keep us ever by your help from all things hurtful, and lead us to all things profitable to our salvation; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

FOR OUR PRAYERS: Yemi, Prosperity

ATTENDING ST GEORGE'S SUNDAY EUCHARIST

If you want to attend a Sunday service at St George's, you must contact Richard by the Friday before,

by email: richard.lane

@stgeorgeandstmichael.org.uk. There is a strictly limited capacity and people will be turned away if we cannot accommodate them safely.

PLEASE don't 'reply' to Welcome Sheet emails —these go straight to the parish office and not to Richard!

HARVEST FESTIVAL ST GEORGE'S

Harvest will inevitably be a bit different this year. You are invited either to bring non-perishable items for the food bank or alternatively to make a financial contribution to the food bank. There will be a basket marked for these donations as you come into church on Sunday 11 October.

THURSDAY SERVICES AT CHAPEL

If you are interested in a service at the Chapel at 18:30 on Thursday evenings, please contact Richard to say so! Many thanks.

HARVEST AT ST MICHAEL'S

We are now collecting non-perishable food items for our Harvest festival.

AUTUMN FAITH CAFÉ

It has been suggested that we might hold a distanced faith cafe in October. We would show a film as usual and have a 'theological' and spiritual chat about it afterwards. We won't be able to have refreshments but you could bring your own popcorn. If we decide to hold the event, it is likely to be on Oct 7, 14 and 21 at 19:30 in church. If this is something you'd like to join in with, please contact Richard to say so. We feel there is little point in going through the process of setting this up if the Covid situation means there are no or very few takers.

ST MICHAEL'S SINGING

Singing and music is only permitted for small groups of professional and non-professional performers in a physically distanced and safe way. Congregations are not permitted to sing.

ST GEORGE'S NOMINATIONS

If you would like to serve as churchwarden, deanery synod rep or member of the PCC for St George's, please have a word with Richard who will add your name to the nomination form.

ST GEORGE'S APCM REPORTS

These are available to read on the website: stgeorgeandstmichael.org.uk/apcm. Please send yours in if you haven't already done so! If you cannot get the reports online please speak to Richard so we can arrange a paper copy for you.

WALSINGHAM 2021

The Shrine hopes to open accommodation for pilgrims in the New Year and has transferred our booking to the weekend of 5 - 7 November 2021. At present we have no idea of price but we will advise this is due course.

ST MICHAEL'S LIVESTREAM SERVICES

As well as Zoom, St Michael's livestream their services on YouTube, link here <https://bit.ly/3mIEs0h>. If you have any problems with this please contact Ifeanyi (details on the front page).

MACMILLAN COLLECTION

Instead of our usual coffee morning, we will take a collection at St George's during the service on 27 September.

OT: Exodus 16: 2—15

² The whole congregation of the Israelites complained against Moses and Aaron in the wilderness. ³ The Israelites said to them, 'If only we had died by the hand of the LORD in the land of Egypt, when we sat by the fleshpots and ate our fill of bread; for you have brought us out into this wilderness to kill this whole assembly with hunger.'

⁴ Then the LORD said to Moses, 'I am going to rain bread from heaven for you, and each day the people shall go out and gather enough for that day. In that way I will test them, whether they will follow my instruction or not. ⁵ On the sixth day, when they prepare what they bring in, it will be twice as much as they gather on other days.' ⁶ So Moses and Aaron said to all the Israelites, 'In the evening you shall know that it was the LORD who brought you out of the land of Egypt, ⁷ and in the morning you shall see the glory of the LORD, because he has heard your complaining against the LORD. For what are we, that you complain against us?' ⁸ And Moses said, 'When the LORD gives you meat to eat in the evening and your fill of bread in the morning, because the LORD has heard the complaining that you utter against him—what are we? Your complaining is not against us but against the LORD.'

⁹ Then Moses said to Aaron, 'Say to the whole congregation of the Israelites, "Draw near to the LORD, for he has heard your complaining."' ¹⁰ And as Aaron spoke to the whole congregation of the Israelites, they looked towards the wilderness, and the glory of the LORD appeared in the cloud.

¹¹ The LORD spoke to Moses and said, ¹² 'I have heard the complaining of the Israelites; say to them, "At twilight you shall eat meat, and in the morning you shall have your fill of bread; then you shall know that I am the LORD your God.'"

¹³ In the evening quails came up and covered the camp; and in the morning there was a layer of dew around the camp. ¹⁴ When the layer of dew lifted, there on the surface of the wilderness was a fine flaky substance, as fine as frost on the ground. ¹⁵ When the Israelites saw it, they said to one another, 'What is it?' For they did not know what it was. Moses said to them, 'It is the bread that the LORD has given you to eat.'

GOSPEL: Matthew 20: 1—16

'For the kingdom of heaven is like a landowner who went out early in the morning to hire labourers for his vineyard. ² After agreeing with the labourers for the usual daily wage, he sent them into his vineyard. ³ When he went out about nine o'clock, he saw others standing idle in the market-place; ⁴ and he said to them, "You also go into the vineyard, and I will pay you whatever is right." So they went. ⁵ When he went out again about noon and about three o'clock, he did the same. ⁶ And about five o'clock he went out and found others standing around; and he said to them, "Why are you standing here idle all day?" ⁷ They said to him, "Because no one has hired us." He said to them, "You also go into the vineyard." ⁸ When evening came, the owner of the vineyard said to his manager, "Call the labourers and give them their pay, beginning with the last and then going to the first." ⁹ When those hired about five o'clock came, each of them received the usual daily wage. ¹⁰ Now when the first came, they thought they would receive more; but each of them also received the usual daily wage. ¹¹ And when they received it, they grumbled against the landowner, ¹² saying, "These last worked only one hour, and you have made them equal to us who have borne the burden of the day and the scorching heat." ¹³ But he replied to one of them, "Friend, I am doing you no wrong; did you not agree with me for the usual daily wage? ¹⁴ Take what belongs to you and go; I choose to give to this last the same as I give to you. ¹⁵ Am I not allowed to do what I choose with what belongs to me? Or are you envious because I am generous?" ¹⁶ So the last will be first, and the first will be last.'
