OT: Amos 8: 1—12 (NLT)

Then the Sovereign LORD showed me another vision. In it I saw a basket filled with ripe fruit. <sup>2</sup>“What do you see, Amos?” he asked.

I replied, “A basket full of ripe fruit.” Then the LORD said, “Like this fruit, Israel is ripe for punishment! I will not delay their punishment again. <sup>3</sup>In that day the singing in the temple will turn to wailing. Dead bodies will be scattered everywhere. They will be carried out of the city in silence. I, the Sovereign LORD, have spoken!”

<sup>4</sup> Listen to this, you who rob the poor and trample down the needy!

<sup>5</sup> You can't wait for the Sabbath day to be over and the religious festivals to end so you can get back to cheating the helpless.

You measure out grain with dishonest measures and cheat the buyer with dishonest scales.

<sup>6</sup> And you mix the grain you sell with chaff swept from the floor.

Then you enslave poor people for one piece of silver or a pair of sandals.

<sup>7</sup> Now the LORD has sworn this oath by his own name, the Pride of Israel: “I will never forget the wicked things you have done!

<sup>8</sup> The earth will tremble for your deeds,

and everyone will mourn.

The ground will rise like the Nile River at floodtime;

it will heave up, then sink again.

<sup>9</sup> “In that day,” says the

Sovereign LORD,

“I will make the sun go down at noon

and darken the earth while it is still day.

<sup>10</sup> I will turn your celebrations into times of mourning and your singing into weeping.

You will wear funeral clothes and shave your heads to show your sorrow—

as if your only son had died.

How very bitter that day will be!

<sup>11</sup> “The time is surely coming,” says the Sovereign LORD,

“when I will send a famine on the land—

not a famine of bread or water

but of hearing the words of the LORD.

<sup>12</sup> People will stagger from sea to sea

and wander from border to border

searching for the word of the LORD,

but they will not find it.

GOSPEL: Luke 10: 38—end (NLT)

<sup>38</sup> As Jesus and the disciples continued on their way to Jerusalem, they came to a certain village where a woman named Martha welcomed him into her home. <sup>39</sup> Her sister, Mary, sat at the Lord's feet, listening to what he taught. <sup>40</sup> But Martha was distracted by the big dinner she was preparing. She came to Jesus and said, "Lord, doesn't it seem unfair to you that my sister just sits here while I do all the work? Tell her to come and help me."

<sup>41</sup> But the Lord said to her, "My dear Martha, you are worried and upset over all these details! <sup>42</sup> There is only one thing worth being concerned about. Mary has discovered it, and it will not be taken away from her."
